Serendipity presents an ever-changing vista as you wander through it. Spanning 2200m², it has been creatively designed by Yvonne and Gerhard Horoschun over the last 40 years. Featuring many mature trees such as Tulip Trees, Dogwoods, Maples, a Crab Apple and Eucalypts, the planting scheme encompasses a range of exotic shrubs, such as camellias, azaleas, conifers and Australian natives. Extensive paths, with intermittent steps, meander through planted zones to provide easy access to most areas.

Shotlock Coffee Van onsite & Chameleon
ice creams available to purchase

Visitors should keep to paths or grassed areas.

Intermittent steps occur throughout the garden, therefore, it is not accessible to wheelchairs.

The garden includes a fishpond, and high retaining walls, thus it is vital that children always be under close supervision.
